WEDDING PACKAGES

Mayan Wedding

- The Mayan wedding is a traditional ritual, with prayers in the Maya language. Explanations and translations are provided in Spanish or English
- Accompanied by Maya musical instruments and songs, the wedding couple walks to the altar to receive a first blessing, while copal incense cleanses and purifies the surroundings
- The celebration starts with a Maya prayer. Conches are then blown asking for the gods' permission and blessings from the four cardinal points. A sacred Balché drink is blessed with copal incense, and then offered and shared to feed the souls
- The wedding couple offers corn and cocoa to the Maya gods to help create a beautiful relationship with one another. They are blessed with white and yellow flower petals representing the sun and the moon, man and woman, symbolizing the union of their lives

Inclusions:

- On-site wedding coordinator services
- Ceremony location: intimate white sand beach
- Traditional Maya wedding ceremony setup
- Fruit platter and sparkling wine for the wedding couple on the wedding night
- Romantic in-room decoration with rose petals for the wedding couple on the wedding day
